

Academic Scholarship Application Form 2023

Our business partners have generously provided financial support to subsidise the costs associated with schooling. In order to ensure this is an equitable process, we invite you to apply for an academic scholarship, with successful recipients receiving funds towards educational items for 2023. Families can select items from the following list:

- Textbooks
- Uniform costs
- Specialised programs
- Material charges or
- Special events (for example graduation, excursions, etc)

Application process:

- Complete the following application form, remembering to include two suitable referees
- A shortlisting process will occur with members of the College leadership team
- Successful recipients will be notified by Wednesday 14th December
